LIVE AFTER FIVE

West Valley City Parks & Recreation invites musicians to be a part of its 2013 Live After Five series, Fairbourne Station Plaza entertainment for everyone!

Summer 2013 will be the inaugural year for the Fairbourne Station Plaza to provide park users and residents with FREE entertainment in their community. The 2013 Live After Five series will run Friday nights, 6:00-8:00 PM from May 24 to September 13. The performance lineup will include a mix of music for all ages and styles, therefore, performers of all genres are encouraged to apply. All performances must prominently feature live, family friendly music in addition to any visual performing arts and must reasonably fill the allotted two hour timeslot for the show.

Fairbourne Station Plaza is located at 3590 South 2810 West (Lehman Avenue and Market Street).

The venue provides basic equipment (chairs, tables, etc.) but no sound system or sound techs are provided. Merchandise sales, such as CDs and t-shirts, are permitted.

With the limited dates and times available, all applicants may not be able to perform in the 2013 series. The goal is to book a diverse and entertaining series of concerts that attract music lovers from all backgrounds. Submitted applications will be considered until all concert dates are full. Booking is subject to the availability and remains at the discretion of the Program Committee. Please see Booking Process & Policies for more information.
